STAT	3. You may also want to get informal or written comments from OCI shop, or at least refer to them in your report, since this adds another dimension and viewpoint.
STAT	4. I told that I thought responsibility in PRG for development of analytical techniques made it essential that his views be prominent in this report.	STAT
	5. Please try to get on calendar this week to brief them. I'm interested in what you conclude, but I'm not desirous of standing between all of you and the IC Staff front office. Just let me know what you decide and what you do.	STAT
